

Position: Project AHEAD Intern

Position Description:

Project Asian Health Education And Development is an 8-week long summer program designed to provide training and experience for college students who have an interest in pursuing a career in the health care field.

The program consists of:

- Seminars and workshops
- Community health project
- Shadowing experience

Our goals are:

- To increase students' interest in and awareness of the special needs, problems and strengths of Asian American communities
- To encourage students to enter health and allied health professions, especially in areas of community need
- To motivate students to practice within the Asian American community upon completion of their professional training
- To provide first hand experience in health care delivery in a community setting
- To help student develop a better understanding of themselves as individuals and as contributing members of their communities

Qualifications:

- Currently an undergraduate or will be an undergraduate by June 2010
- Interested in health care and the Asian American community
- Committed to working full time, Monday – Friday, 9 a.m. – 5 p.m., including some early mornings and weekends from June 21 to August 13, 2010
- Students who are interested in nursing, dentistry, mental health, and social work are encouraged to apply

How to apply:

Applicants should visit the Charles B. Wang Community Health Center website to apply:

<http://www.cbwchc.org/job/ahead/ahead.html>

Please read the fact sheet and application carefully before applying. Only complete applications will be reviewed or considered. Apply only if you can provide a full commitment to the program.