About Jessica Cheng, D.N.P.

Dr. Cheng is a board-certified nurse practitioner with a specialization in family medicine.

She diagnoses and treats a wide variety of conditions in adult and pediatric patients. Dr. Cheng also provides annual exams, immunizations, specialist referrals, and patient education, among other services.

Dr. Cheng approaches her nursing practice as a team effort between herself and the patient. Her patient-centered philosophy involves giving each patient individualized personal attention and working with them to determine which treatment is most suitable. By establishing therapeutic relationships with her patients, she strives to give patients the medical information needed so that patients can make informed decisions about their care.

In her free time, Dr. Cheng enjoys traveling, baking, exploring new restaurants in NYC, and spending time with her family.
