About Brendan Ho, D.D.S.

Dr. Ho is a board-eligible, general practice dentist.

He performs a wide range of dental services for children and adults, including general examinations, teeth cleaning, dental x-rays, dental fillings and crowns, tooth extraction, root canals, basic periodontal treatment, denture and bridge care, referrals and care coordination with specialists, and health education to promote oral health.

Dr. Ho takes a patient-centered approach to his work. He is an attentive practitioner who provides patients with the highest quality dental care possible, including preventative care.

Dr. Ho is committed to the values of community service. For the past 7 years, he has volunteered with community organizations in New York, where he assisted in medical and dental education to local communities and provided oral hygiene instruction to patients. He has also served as a volunteer dentist at the NYU Oral Health and Cancer Screening program, where he advocated for the importance of dental care and performed non-invasive head and neck exams.

While not working, Dr. Ho enjoys spending time with family and friends, playing sports, and dancing.
