About Jamylin Wu, M.D.

Dr. Wu is a board-certified pediatrician.

She provides care to patients up to 21 years of age, including regular checkups and immunizations. Dr. Wu also provides health education, referrals, and care coordination with specialists.

Dr. Wu strives to impart knowledge to the young about their health and how to lead healthy lives. She understands the needs of her patients and treats every person with the compassion, respect, and attention they deserve.

Dr. Wu has a strong commitment to community service with extensive experience as a mentor and tutor of high school students preparing for college and medical school, as well as a volunteer home visit companion for the elderly. She is dedicated to delivering culturally competent health information to underserved communities and supporting young families.

When not working, Dr. Wu enjoys taking long walks, exploring new restaurants, and spending time with friends and family.
