About Gail Beth Bauchman, M.D.

Dr. Bauchman is a board-certified family medicine doctor specializing in women's health. She has more than 35 years of experience.

Dr. Bauchman provides outpatient gynecological care, including annual gynecological exams, family planning, STD testing and treatment, cancer screening, and diagnosis and management of gynecological issues.

Dr. Bauchman is dedicated to providing high-quality and compassionate care. She promotes shared decision making between herself and her patients. Her particular areas of expertise and interest are in contraception, treatment of abnormal Pap smears, and adolescent gynecology.

On her off time, Dr. Bauchman enjoys biking, hiking, and kayaking. She loves traveling and learning about people of different cultures. She also loves to experiment with making healthy meals in her kitchen.
