About Perry Pong, M.D.

Dr. Pong is a board-certified internal medicine doctor and the Executive Vice President and Chief Medical Officer at the Charles B. Wang Community Health Center with more than 29 years' experience.

He diagnoses and treats a wide variety of conditions in adult patients. Dr. Pong also provides annual exams, immunizations, specialist referrals, and patient education, among other services.

Dr. Pong also teaches at a number of academic institutions, including Weill Cornell Medical College and New York University. He takes into account a patient's life and perspective, including their work, family situation, and approach to health.

When not working, Dr. Pong jogs most days to get fresh air and keep the blood moving. He also likes to read, cook, and travel.
